Elaboration

1. The evidence indicates that Bob Geldof and Bono (U2's lead singer) have collaborated on projects.
2. The Dublin Live article from November 2024 shows that Mary Coughlan criticized Bono and Geldof for their silence on the situation in Gaza.
3. There is no evidence of a tour in November 2024 by U2 and Bob Geldof to aid the Israeli army. The evidence suggests the opposite, with criticism of their silence on the situation in Gaza.

Insufficient Information: The claim cannot be verified.

Final Judgement

The search results show that Bob Geldof and Bono (U2's lead singer) have collaborated on projects, and there is criticism of their silence on the situation in Gaza. There is no evidence of a tour in November 2024 by U2 and Bob Geldof to aid the Israeli army.

false

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The claim is false. While Bob Geldof and Bono (U2's lead singer) have collaborated on projects, there is no evidence of a 2024 tour to aid the Israeli army. In fact, a November 2024 article from Dublin Live (<https://www.dublinlive.ie/news/celebs/music-legend-hits-out-bono-30287394>) indicates criticism of their silence on the situation in Gaza.
