Elaboration

The provided image appears to be a digital artwork or a simulation, not a real photograph. The reverse image search did not yield any results that confirm the claim.

The image shows a large aircraft on fire at an airbase, surrounded by military vehicles. The presence of the "Guerras Geopolíticas" logo suggests the image may be related to geopolitical events. However, without further evidence, it is impossible to verify the claim.

The claim is not supported by the available evidence. More information is needed to verify the authenticity of the image and the events it depicts.
