Evidence

Evidence from `web_search`

In March 2025, Lech Wałęsa wrote a letter to Donald Trump criticizing his treatment of Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy. The letter was signed by dozens of former Polish political prisoners. NPR reported on March 5, 2025, that Wałęsa's letter condemned Trump's actions. Reuters reported on March 3, 2025, that Wałęsa expressed "horror" at Trump's argument with Zelenskyy, and the letter was posted on Facebook. The Los Angeles Times also reported on March 3, 2025, that Wałęsa and other former political prisoners wrote a letter to Trump criticizing his behavior toward Zelenskyy.

Elaboration

The evidence confirms that in March 2025, Lech Wałęsa wrote a letter to Donald Trump. The letter criticized Trump's behavior toward Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy.

The evidence does not mention the suspension of U.S. military aid to Ukraine.

The claim is partially supported but also contains information that is not supported by the evidence.

Final Judgement

The fact-check confirms that Lech Wałęsa wrote a letter to Donald Trump in March 2025 criticizing his behavior toward Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy. However, the evidence does not mention the suspension of U.S. military aid to Ukraine.

Since the claim is partially supported but also contains information that is not supported by the evidence, the most appropriate decision option is `false`.
