The National Desk discusses a doctored image of a poll, which was shared by Rep. Erakat, seemingly conducted by Israel's Channel 12 (

). An article from Mondoweiss discusses a poll indicating that 65% of Jewish Israelis oppose criminal prosecution for soldiers suspected of raping Palestinian detainees. The poll was conducted by the Israeli Institute for National Security Studies.

Elaboration

The claim is false. The image is a doctored screenshot of a poll. The original footage was published by Channel 12 on May 27, 2022. The doctored image asked if a soldier is allowed to rape a Palestinian. Channel 12 did not broadcast the purported poll. The original question was: “Do you agree with the claim that the government relies on supporters of terrorism?”

Final Judgement

The image is a doctored screenshot of a poll that was not broadcast by Channel 12. The original question was different from the one presented in the image.

false

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The image is a doctored screenshot of a poll that was not broadcast by Channel 12. The original footage, published on May 27, 2022, featured a different question than the one presented in the image, which falsely claimed to ask about a soldier's permission to rape a prisoner. The original question was: “Do you agree with the claim that the government relies on supporters of terrorism?”
