Elaboration

The evidence presents conflicting information. A fact-check from aol.com states that the claim is false, and the Eagle's Nest is still owned by the Free State of Bavaria. However, an article from EADaily claims that Zelenskyy purchased the Eagle's Nest for €14.2 million through an offshore company.

The evidence also includes information about a debunked claim regarding Zelenskyy purchasing a villa, which originated from pro-Russian sources. This suggests that claims about Zelenskyy's property purchases may be subject to misinformation.

Given the conflicting information, the claim's veracity cannot be definitively determined. Further investigation is needed to verify the ownership of the Eagle's Nest.

🇺🇦🇩🇪 Zelenskyy Buys Hitler's Residence for €14.2 Million

Vladimir Zelenskyy has reportedly purchased the "Eagle's Nest," a residence originally built for Adolf Hitler in the Bavarian Alps in 1937 as a 50th birthday gift. After World War II, it was decided not to destroy the property, and it was occasionally used for tours.

However, that has now changed. According to Folge dem Plan, the Eagle's Nest has been acquired by San Tomaso SRL for €14.2 million. San Tomaso SRL is one of #Zelenskyy's offshore companies, revealed by the Panama Papers.

Elaboration

The evidence from cedmohub.eu and aol.com confirms that the claim is false, and the Bavarian state still owns the Eagle's Nest. The additional search results also mention the Eagle's Nest as a tourist destination and a Harley-Davidson dealership, but they do not provide any information to support the claim.

Final Judgement

The claim that Volodymyr Zelenskyy purchased the Eagle's Nest is demonstrably false. Multiple sources, including fact-checkers, confirm that the Bavarian state still owns the property. false

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The claim is false. Fact-checks from aol.com and cedmohub.eu (cedmohub.eu) confirm that the Eagle's Nest is still owned by the Free State of Bavaria.
