Evidence

Evidence from web_search

Benjamin Netanyahu met with Donald Trump at the White House on April 7, 2025, according to reports from NPR (<https://www.npr.org/2025/07/07/g-s1-76296/israel-netanyahu-meet-trump>) and ABC7 (<https://abc7.com/post/trump-netanyahu-may-take-victory-lap-iran-gaza-war-looms-meeting/17007239/>). The meetings focused on the war in Gaza and potential ceasefire deals.

The Soufan Center published an Intelbrief on April 9, 2025, discussing Netanyahu's visit, focusing on Trump's tariffs, negotiations with Iran, and Türkiye-Israel relations (<https://thesoufancenter.org/intelbrief-2025-april-9/>). The Intelbrief does not mention any plans to resettle Palestinians in Gaza to Ukraine and Syria.

BBC

PBS News published an article on August 10, 2025, discussing Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's defense of a military offensive in Gaza (

). The Times of Israel's live blog from August 28, 2025, reports on a White House meeting where it was stated that Israel does not want to permanently occupy the Gaza Strip or deport Gaza's residents. The live blog also mentions Netanyahu meeting with Druze leaders and his order to use military force in Syria.

Elaboration

The evidence indicates that Benjamin Netanyahu met with Donald Trump at the White House in April 2025. However, the provided sources do not mention any plans to resettle Palestinians in Gaza to Ukraine and Syria during this visit.

Later reports from August 2025 discuss Israel's plans for Gaza, including taking control of Gaza City and eventually handing it over to Arab forces. The Times of Israel reported that Israel does not want to permanently occupy the Gaza Strip or deport its residents.

Therefore, the claim is not supported by the evidence.

Final Judgement

The available evidence does not support the claim that Benjamin Netanyahu announced plans to resettle Palestinians in Gaza to Ukraine and Syria during his April 2025 visit to the White House. While the visit did occur, and discussions about Gaza were ongoing, no sources mention such a plan.

false

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The claim is false. While Benjamin Netanyahu met with Donald Trump at the White House in April 2025, as reported by NPR (<https://www.npr.org/2025/07/07/g-s1-76296/israel-netanyahu-meet-trump>) and ABC7 (<https://abc7.com/post/trump-netanyahu-may-take-victory-lap-iran-gaza-war-looms-meeting/17007239/>), there is no evidence from the provided sources to support the claim that he announced plans to resettle Palestinians in Gaza to Ukraine and Syria.
