The image

Evidence from web_search

The web sources discuss Israeli airstrikes in Gaza during July 2024. One source, a Wikipedia article, details the 13 July 2024 al-Mawasi attack, which resulted in numerous casualties and international condemnation. Another source, a CNN article, reports on an airstrike on a school in Deir-al Balah, central Gaza, resulting in at least 30 deaths. An NPR article also reports on an Israeli airstrike on a school in Gaza being used as a shelter, resulting in at least 30 deaths, including children.

Elaboration

The evidence confirms that there were Israeli airstrikes in Gaza in July 2024. The search results mention attacks that resulted in casualties, including children. However, the evidence does not provide information about the specific image or its context.

To verify the claim, I need to know if the image is related to any of the events mentioned in the search results. I also need to confirm the child's identity and the circumstances surrounding the image.

Insufficient information to verify the claim.

Evidence

Evidence from web_search

The Getty Images search result provides various images of Palestinian children in Gaza, including those affected by Israeli airstrikes, with some images dated from 2023, 2024, and 2025. The Al Jazeera article from June 24, 2024, reports on missing children in Gaza and includes an image of children after an Israeli airstrike. The Reuters article from October 16, 2024, features images of children affected by the conflict, including one of a child under the rubble in Khan Younis

Elaboration

The search results confirm that images of children under rubble in Gaza after Israeli airstrikes exist. The Reuters article from October 16, 2024, specifically mentions a child under the rubble in Khan Younis. However, the evidence does not confirm that the image in the claim is from July 2024 or that it depicts a specific event.

Insufficient information to verify the claim.

Evidence

Evidence from `web_search`

The web sources discuss Israeli airstrikes in Khan Younis, Gaza, resulting in casualties, including children. The PBS News article from March 20, 2025, reports on an airstrike that killed at least 16 people, including a month-old girl's parents and brother. The BBC article from May 24, 2025, reports on an airstrike that hit a doctor's home, killing nine of her ten children. The ABC News article from March 21, 2025, reports on the rescue of a baby, Ella Osama Abu Dagga, from the rubble after an airstrike that killed her family.

Elaboration

The evidence confirms that Israeli airstrikes in Khan Younis, Gaza, resulted in casualties, including children. However, the provided evidence does not contain the image from the claim. The search results mention events in 2025, while the claim refers to July 2024.

Insufficient information to verify the claim.

Final Judgement

The search results confirm that there were Israeli airstrikes in Gaza, including Khan Younis, resulting in casualties, including children. However, the evidence does not provide information about the specific image or its context. The claim states the image is from July 2024, but the search results do not provide any information about the image or the specific event. Therefore, the claim cannot be verified. `false`

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The claim cannot be verified because, while there were Israeli airstrikes in Gaza in July 2024, the provided evidence does not confirm the image's origin or the specific event it depicts. The search results mention events in 2025, but the claim refers to July 2024.
