Elaboration

The evidence indicates that Donald Trump and Benjamin Netanyahu spoke on August 14, 2024, and discussed the Gaza ceasefire. However, the Reuters article does not mention Trump's alleged motivations. The Newsweek article mentions allegations of the call but also states that both Trump and Netanyahu denied it.

The claim cannot be verified based on the provided evidence. The evidence does not confirm that Trump told Netanyahu to stop the deal because it would help Kamala Harris' 2024 presidential campaign.

Final Judgement

The available evidence confirms that Donald Trump and Benjamin Netanyahu spoke on August 14, 2024, and discussed the Gaza ceasefire. However, there is no evidence to support the claim that Trump told Netanyahu to stop the deal to help Kamala Harris's campaign. In fact, one source states that both Trump and Netanyahu denied the call took place.

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

While Donald Trump and Benjamin Netanyahu reportedly spoke on August 14, 2024, and discussed the Gaza ceasefire, there is no evidence from sources like Reuters (Source) to support the claim that Trump told Netanyahu to stop the deal to help Kamala Harris's campaign. Furthermore, Newsweek reported that both Trump and Netanyahu denied the call took place.
