Elaboration

The new evidence identifies Nahed Hajjaj as a Palestinian journalist from Gaza. The GoFundMe page and SKWAWKBOX articles mention Nahed Hajjaj reporting on the conflict in Gaza. The image in the claim has the name "Nahed Hajjaj" on it. This suggests a connection between the journalist and the image. However, the evidence does not confirm the image's authenticity or the details of the baby's injuries.

The evidence does not provide information about the baby in the image, Sham Imad Muhareb, or the circumstances of her injuries. Therefore, the claim cannot be verified.

To verify the claim, additional information is needed, such as confirmation of the baby's identity, the cause of her injuries, and the date and location of the incident.

Evidence

Evidence from `web_search`

From Source: Content: Quds News Network reports that Palestinian infant Sham, daughter of Dr. Imad Muharab, died from injuries sustained in an Israeli bombing of her grandfather's house in the Al-Shujaiya neighborhood of Gaza City, which resulted in the amputation of her right hand.

Elaboration

The new evidence from Quds News Network contradicts the claim. The source states that Sham Imad Muhareb died from injuries sustained in an Israeli bombing, and that she lost her right hand. The claim states that Sham did not lose her arm. Therefore, the claim is false.

Final Judgement

The evidence from Quds News Network indicates that Sham Imad Muhareb died from injuries sustained in an Israeli bombing and lost her right hand. This directly contradicts the claim that she did not lose her arm.
