From Source: Content: The search result includes an image with the quote attributed to Anthony Bourdain: "Today nearly everything is made in China - except for courage, it's made in Palestine."

Elaboration

The evidence presents an image with the quote attributed to Anthony Bourdain. However, the search for the quote's origin did not yield any results.

The veracity of the claim cannot be fully determined based on the available evidence. Additional information is needed to confirm whether Anthony Bourdain actually said the quote and the context in which it was said.

Final Judgement

The search results show the quote attributed to Anthony Bourdain in social media posts and images. However, the search for the quote's authenticity and origin did not yield any definitive results. Therefore, the claim's veracity cannot be fully determined based on the available evidence.

The decision option that best applies is `false` because there is not enough evidence to verify the claim.

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The claim is unverified. While the quote is widely circulated and attributed to Anthony Bourdain on social media, searches for the quote's authenticity and origin did not yield any definitive results, making it impossible to confirm whether he actually said it.
