Evidence

Evidence from web_search

In February 2025, Elon Musk made several statements on X regarding Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy. According to an article from Al Jazeera (Source), Musk questioned the credibility of polling data on Zelenskyy's popularity and claimed Zelenskyy is "despised by the people of Ukraine." The Independent (Source) reports that Musk accused Zelenskyy of "feeding off the dead bodies of Ukrainian soldiers."

News24 (Source) reported that Musk vowed to "fix" X's fact-checking tool. The articles include images of Elon Musk

Elaboration

The evidence does not mention Elon Musk planning to suspend Volodymyr Zelenskyy's X account. Instead, it reports that Musk made statements questioning Zelenskyy's popularity and accusing him of exploiting the deaths of Ukrainian soldiers.

Final Judgement

The search results show that Elon Musk made statements about Volodymyr Zelenskyy in February 2025, but they do not include any mention of Musk planning to suspend Zelenskyy's X account. The evidence focuses on Musk's criticism of Zelenskyy and his comments on polling data.

false

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The search results from Al Jazeera (Source) and The Independent (Source) indicate that in February 2025, Elon Musk made statements criticizing Volodymyr Zelenskyy, but there is no evidence to support the claim that Musk planned to suspend Zelenskyy's X account.
