Elaboration

The evidence indicates that JD Vance accused Volodymyr Zelenskyy of campaigning for Kamala Harris in the 2024 presidential race. News reports mention Zelenskyy's visit to a munitions plant in Scranton, Pennsylvania, and meetings with Harris and U.S. lawmakers. Some Republicans viewed Zelenskyy's actions as a signal of his preference in the election.

The evidence does not explicitly state that Zelenskyy was campaigning for Harris. However, the reports suggest that his actions, such as visiting a munitions plant and meeting with Harris, were perceived by some as a form of support.

To fully verify the claim, it would be necessary to determine whether Zelenskyy's actions were intended to influence the election and whether they constituted campaigning.

Final Judgement

The fact-check reveals that while Zelenskyy visited Pennsylvania and met with Kamala Harris, there is no direct evidence to confirm that he was campaigning for her. The claim is based on perceptions and interpretations of his actions. Therefore, the claim is not factually accurate. false
