Elaboration

The evidence suggests that Donald Trump and Benjamin Netanyahu spoke on August 14, 2024, and discussed the Gaza ceasefire. However, the Reuters article does not mention the specific reason for Trump's alleged request. The Newsweek article mentions that Trump and Netanyahu denied the call took place. The article also mentions that PBS host Judy Woodruff reported that Trump urged Netanyahu not to cut a deal because it would help the Harris campaign.

Based on the evidence, the claim is not fully verifiable. While there is evidence of a phone call, the specific details of the conversation, as stated in the claim, are disputed.

Final Judgement

The claim is not factually accurate. While there is evidence of a phone call between Trump and Netanyahu, the specific details of the conversation, as stated in the claim, are disputed. The claim is disproven by the fact that Trump and Netanyahu denied the call took place.

false

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

While Reuters reports a phone call between Donald Trump and Benjamin Netanyahu on August 14, 2024, discussing the Gaza ceasefire, the claim that Trump told Netanyahu to stop the deal to hurt Kamala Harris's campaign is disputed. Newsweek reports that both Trump and Netanyahu denied the call took place, and the specific details of the conversation are not confirmed by the available evidence.
