From Source: Content: The Tehran Times reports that Ismail Haniyeh used WhatsApp just before the assassination.

Elaboration

The Tehran Times reports that Ismail Haniyeh used WhatsApp just before the assassination. However, the evidence does not mention Israeli intelligence tracking Haniyeh through WhatsApp.

Therefore, the claim cannot be fully verified. The evidence confirms Haniyeh's WhatsApp usage before the assassination but lacks information about Israeli intelligence involvement.

Al Jazeera (<https://www.aljazeera.com/news/2024/7/31/hamass-political-chief-ismail-haniyeh-assassinated-in-iran-state-media>) reports on the assassination of Ismail Haniyeh.

WHYY.org (<https://whyy.org/articles/hamas-ismail-haniyeh-assassination-israel-strike-iran/>) discusses the assassination of Ismail Haniyeh.

Politico (<https://www.politico.com/news/2024/07/30/hamas-leader-ismail-haniyeh-reportedly-assassinated-tehran-00172019>) reports on the assassination of Hamas leader Ismail Haniyeh.

Elaboration

The new evidence confirms the assassination of Ismail Haniyeh, as reported by Al Jazeera, WHYY.org, and Politico. However, none of these sources mention Israeli intelligence tracking Haniyeh through WhatsApp.

Therefore, the claim remains unverified due to the lack of evidence supporting the involvement of Israeli intelligence and the use of WhatsApp for tracking.

Evidence

No new evidence found.

Elaboration

The claim cannot be verified. While the evidence confirms Ismail Haniyeh's assassination and his use of WhatsApp, there is no evidence to support the assertion that Israeli intelligence tracked him through WhatsApp.

Final Judgement

The evidence indicates that Ismail Haniyeh was assassinated and used WhatsApp. However, there is no evidence to support the claim that Israeli intelligence tracked him through WhatsApp. Therefore, the claim is not fully verifiable.

false

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The claim is not fully verifiable. While reports confirm the assassination of Ismail Haniyeh and his use of WhatsApp, there is no evidence from sources like the Tehran Times, Al Jazeera, WHYY.org, or Politico to support the assertion that Israeli intelligence tracked him through WhatsApp.
