Evidence from image_search

From Source: Content: The search result shows a brown dog with a headlamp.

Elaboration

The evidence includes images and a video related to dogs attacking elderly Palestinian women. The Al Jazeera video was published on June 26, 2024. The image search also found an image of a dog with a headlamp.

The claim states that the image is authentic and depicts an Israeli army dog attacking an elderly Palestinian woman in June 2024. While the evidence confirms that such attacks have occurred, there is no evidence to confirm the authenticity of the specific image in the claim. The image search did not return the same image.

Therefore, the claim's veracity cannot be fully determined without additional information.

Evidence

Evidence from web_search

Anadolu Agency, Morocco World News, and the Palestinian Centre for Human Rights (PCHR) published articles about Israeli army dogs attacking elderly Palestinian women. Anadolu Agency reported an attack on Dawlat al-Tanani in Gaza's Jabalia refugee camp, with the attack occurring during a 20-day Israeli military attack from May 12 to May 31, 2024. Morocco World News reported an attack in Jabalia refugee camp, with the woman, Dawlat Al Tanani, stating the dog bit her because she was resisting eviction. PCHR reported an attack on May 14, 2024, where a dog bit a 58-year-old woman's shoulder. The PCHR article includes a video from Al Jazeera. The articles can be found at: <https://www.aa.com.tr/en/middle-east/elderly-palestinian-woman-recounts-terrifying-attack-by-israeli-army-dog-in-gaza/3262376>, <https://www.moroccoworldnews.com/2024/06/18005/israeli-police-dog->

Elaboration

The evidence confirms that Israeli army dogs attacked elderly Palestinian women in May 2024. The attacks occurred in Gaza's Jabalia refugee camp. The claim's date of June 2024 is close to the reported attacks in May 2024. However, the evidence does not provide the specific image in the claim.

Therefore, the claim is plausible, but the authenticity of the image cannot be verified.

Final Judgement

The evidence confirms that Israeli army dogs attacked elderly Palestinian women in May 2024, which is close to the claimed date of June 2024. However, the specific image in the claim has not been found in the search results. Therefore, while the event is plausible, the image's authenticity cannot be verified. `false`

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The claim is unproven. While there is evidence of Israeli army dogs attacking elderly Palestinian women in May 2024, the specific image in the claim could not be verified through image or web searches. The attacks occurred in Gaza's Jabalia refugee camp, as reported by sources like Anadolu Agency and Morocco World News.
