The Reuters article mentions Warren Buffett warning against Ukraine fatigue, which implies his concern for the ongoing situation, but it does not confirm any specific donations.

Evidence from `image_search`

Business Insider reports that Howard Buffett has given $500 million to Ukraine (Source). The search result from victoryharvest.com.ua features an image of Howard Buffett with Volodymyr Zelenskyy (Source).

Elaboration

The evidence indicates that Howard Buffett, Warren Buffett's son, has donated $500 million to Ukraine (<https://www.businessinsider.com/howard-buffett-gives-500-million-to-ukraine>). However, the claim states that Warren Buffett has given more than $500 million.

Since the evidence only mentions Howard Buffett's donation, the claim is not supported.

Final Judgement

The fact-check reveals that while Warren Buffett's son, Howard Buffett, has donated $500 million to Ukraine, there is no evidence to support the claim that Warren Buffett himself has given more than $500 million. The search results confirm Howard Buffett's donation but do not provide information about Warren Buffett's personal contributions.

The claim is not supported by the available evidence, as it is Howard Buffett, not Warren Buffett, who has donated $500 million. Therefore, the claim is not factually accurate. false

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The claim is false. While Warren Buffett's son, Howard Buffett, has donated $500 million to Ukraine, there is no evidence to support the claim that Warren Buffett has personally donated more than that amount. The evidence, including a Business Insider article (<https://www.businessinsider.com/howard-buffett-gives-500-million-to-ukraine>), focuses on Howard Buffett's contributions, not Warren Buffett's.
