Evidence

Evidence from web_search

A Yahoo News fact-check from Snopes rates the claim as "False". The article states that Zelenskyy declared fewer than 15 properties, no planes, and an annual income of around $300,000. It also mentions that there is no trace of a $35 million Florida mansion in Zelenskyy's name. (<https://www.yahoo.com/news/fact-check-facts-behind-resurfaced-231800640.html>)

Elaboration

The claim is demonstrably false. Multiple sources, including Snopes (<https://www.yahoo.com/news/fact-check-facts-behind-resurfaced-231800640.html>), Myth Detector (<https://mythdetector.com/en/change-during-the-russia-ukraine-war/>), and AOL (<https://www.aol.com/much-volodymyr-zelenskyy-worth-160047933.html>), provide evidence that contradicts the specifics of the claim. These sources indicate that Zelenskyy owns fewer than 15 properties, does not own private planes, and has a significantly lower income and net worth than stated.

The Times of India (<https://timesofindia.indiatimes.com/etimes/trending/net-worth-of-volodymyr-zelenskyy-the-entertainer-turned-president-of-ukraine/articleshow/118651819.cms>) estimates Zelenskyy's real estate portfolio to be worth $4 million, which is far less than the $35 million home in Florida mentioned in the claim. Furthermore, the Pandora Papers investigation (<https://www.occrp.org/en/project/the-pandora-papers/pandora-papers-reveal-offshore-holdings-of-ukrainian-president-and-his-inner-circle>) revealed offshore holdings, but the claim's specific figures for bank accounts and income are not supported by the evidence.

Final Judgement

The claim is demonstrably false. Multiple sources contradict the claim's specifics regarding Zelenskyy's property, assets, and income.

false

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The claim that Volodymyr Zelenskyy owns 15 homes, a $35 million home in Florida, has $1.2 billion in an overseas bank account, three private planes, and a monthly income of $11 million is false. Fact-checks from Snopes (<https://www.yahoo.com/news/fact-check-facts-behind-resurfaced-231800640.html>) and other sources show that Zelenskyy's assets and income are significantly lower than stated.
