Elaboration

The evidence indicates that Donald Trump and Benjamin Netanyahu spoke on August 14, 2024, and discussed the Gaza ceasefire. However, the evidence does not support the claim that Trump told Netanyahu to stop the deal because it would help Kamala Harris's campaign. Newsweek reported that both Trump and Netanyahu's office denied the call took place.

Therefore, the claim is not supported by the available evidence.

Final Judgement

The evidence confirms that Trump and Netanyahu spoke on August 14, 2024, and discussed the Gaza ceasefire. However, there is no evidence to support the claim that Trump told Netanyahu to stop the deal to hurt Kamala Harris's campaign. In fact, Newsweek reported that both Trump and Netanyahu's office denied the call took place.

false

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The claim is not supported by the evidence. While Donald Trump and Benjamin Netanyahu did speak on August 14, 2024, and discussed the Gaza ceasefire, there is no evidence to support the assertion that Trump told Netanyahu to stop the deal to hurt Kamala Harris's campaign. In fact, both Trump and Netanyahu's office denied the call took place, according to a Newsweek article.
