Elaboration

The evidence indicates that after the phone call on February 12, 2025, Donald Trump announced that negotiations to end the war in Ukraine would begin immediately. Reuters reported that Trump said both Putin and Zelenskiy expressed a desire for peace, and he ordered U.S. officials to begin talks to end the war. The CNN article also supports this.

The evidence does not state that Trump announced he had reached an agreement to end the war. Instead, he announced the beginning of negotiations.

Final Judgement

After a call with Putin on February 12, 2025, Donald Trump announced that negotiations to end the war in Ukraine would begin immediately, not that he had reached an agreement to end the war. Multiple sources confirm this.

false

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

Following a phone call with Vladimir Putin on February 12, 2025, Donald Trump announced the commencement of negotiations to end the war in Ukraine, as reported by sources such as CNN and Reuters (<https://www.cnn.com/2025/02/12/politics/putin-trump-phone-call>, <https://www.reuters.com/world/trump-says-he-discussed-ending-ukraine-war-with-russias-putin-2025-02-12/>). However, the evidence does not support the claim that an agreement to end the war was reached at that time.
