The provided sources discuss Israeli airstrikes in southern Syria and near Damascus in February 2025. One source, from Al Jazeera, reports that the attacks targeted military bases and command centers, specifically in Kiswa and Deraa. The Guardian also reported on the airstrikes, mentioning that Israel demanded the demilitarization of southern Syria and that the foreign minister described the new Syrian rulers as a "jihadist, Islamist terror group". The Wikipedia article discusses the Israeli invasion of Syria (2024–present) and mentions the airstrikes in Damascus on February 25, 2025, along with other events such as the "Fall of the Assad regime" and various clashes and massacres.
