The 2025 London Summit on Ukraine, officially titled the Securing Our Future London Summit, was held on March 2, 2025, in London, hosted by British Prime Minister Keir Starmer. The summit aimed to create a "coalition of the willing" to present a peace plan for the Russian invasion of Ukraine. Participants included leaders from 16 states, the EU, and NATO. The summit resulted in a four-point plan and commitments, including £1.6 billion in UK export finances for air defense missiles manufactured in Belfast and a £2.2 billion loan for military aid to Ukraine backed by frozen Russian assets. The summit followed a meeting between Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy and U.S. President Donald Trump.

The summit was attended by several European leaders, including Volodymyr Zelensky, Keir Starmer, and Emmanuel Macron. Reuters reports on the summit, mentioning that Russian parliamentarians dismissed the summit, stating it produced no plan to settle the war in Ukraine.

Elaboration

The evidence confirms the existence of the London Summit on Ukraine on March 2, 2025, attended by European leaders, including Zelenskyy, Starmer, and Macron. The summit aimed to create a peace plan for the Russian invasion of Ukraine. The image search results show various photos of the summit, including meetings between Zelenskyy, Starmer, and Macron. However, the evidence does not explicitly confirm that the image in the claim is authentic or that the leaders took off their suits to support Ukraine.

Therefore, the claim's veracity cannot be fully confirmed based on the provided evidence. Additional information is needed to verify the authenticity of the image and the context of the leaders removing their suits.

Verdict: NEI

Justification

The claim that European leaders took off their suits to support Ukraine at the London summit on March 2, 2025, cannot be verified. While the summit did occur and was attended by several leaders, including Zelenskyy, Starmer, and Macron, the provided evidence, including image and web searches, does not mention or depict leaders removing their suits.
