Elaboration

The evidence suggests that on or around July 22, 2024, Vice President Kamala Harris discussed her stance on Israel. A Reuters article from July 21, 2024, indicates her strong support for Israel. A USA TODAY article from July 23, 2024, mentions her statements on the Israel-Gaza conflict, including reaffirming Israel's right to defend itself.

The website boughtbyzionism.org mentions an endorsement by the Jewish Democratic Coalition of America on July 22, 2024, which could be related to Harris's support for Israel. However, the provided evidence does not explicitly state that Harris said, "Our support for Israel will continue" on July 22, 2024, during Benjamin Netanyahu's visit.

To verify the claim, I need direct evidence of Harris's statement on July 22, 2024, specifically mentioning her support for Israel in the context of Netanyahu's visit.

Elaboration

The evidence indicates that on July 22, 2024, Kamala Harris did not preside over Benjamin Netanyahu's address to Congress. However, her aide stated that she was expected to underscore a commitment to ensuring Israel can defend itself. The New Jersey Monitor reported on July 25, 2024, that Harris met with Netanyahu and reaffirmed Israel's right to defend itself.

While the evidence confirms Harris's support for Israel, it does not provide a direct quote of her saying, "Our support for Israel will continue" on July 22, 2024, during Netanyahu's visit. Therefore, the claim cannot be fully verified.
