Elaboration

The evidence indicates that in November 2024, Bono and Bob Geldof were involved in discussions and events related to the 40th anniversary of Band Aid and faced criticism for their silence on the situation in Gaza. However, there is no mention of a multi-stadium tour to aid the Israeli army.

The Dublin Live article specifically criticizes Bono and Geldof for their silence on the situation in Gaza, which contradicts the claim that they were organizing a tour to aid the Israeli army.

Therefore, the claim is not supported by the evidence.

Final Judgement

The search results show that in November 2024, Bob Geldof and Bono were involved in the 40th anniversary of Band Aid and faced criticism for their silence on the situation in Gaza. There is no evidence of a multi-stadium tour to aid the Israeli army.

The claim is demonstrably false because the evidence contradicts the claim. false

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The claim is demonstrably false. While Bob Geldof and Bono were involved in the 40th anniversary of Band Aid in November 2024, and faced criticism regarding their silence on the situation in Gaza, there is no evidence of a multi-stadium tour to aid the Israeli army, as indicated by the search results from Wikipedia, Dublin Live, and the BBC.
