Elaboration

The evidence confirms that Israeli airstrikes occurred in the Shuja'iyya neighborhood of Gaza City in April 2025. The attacks resulted in numerous casualties. However, the provided evidence does not mention Sham Imad Muhareb or whether she lost her arm.

Therefore, I cannot verify the claim about the baby Sham Imad Muhareb. More information is needed to confirm the baby's identity and the circumstances of her injuries.

From Source: Content: The International Federation of Journalists (IFJ) reports that at least 219 Palestinian journalists and media workers have been killed in Gaza as of August 26, 2025. The report lists numerous journalists killed in Israeli airstrikes and other attacks, including Ibrahim Muhareb, who was killed due to Israeli gunfire and shelling in western Khan Yunis on August 18, 2025. The IFJ calls for an immediate investigation into their deaths.

Elaboration

The evidence mentions Ibrahim Muhareb, who was killed in August 2025. However, there is no information about Sham Imad Muhareb's injuries or the circumstances surrounding them. Therefore, the claim cannot be verified.

Final Judgement

The fact-check revealed that while Israeli airstrikes did occur in the Shuja'iyya neighborhood of Gaza City in April 2025, there is no information available to confirm the identity of the baby in the image, Sham Imad Muhareb, or the nature of her injuries. The search results did not provide any details about the baby or her condition. Therefore, the claim cannot be verified. `false`

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The claim cannot be verified. While there is evidence of Israeli airstrikes in the Shuja'iyya neighborhood of Gaza City in April 2025 (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/April_2025_Shuja%27iyya airstrike), there is no information to confirm the identity of the baby in the image, Sham Imad Muhareb, or the nature of her injuries.
