The web sources discuss the London Summit on Ukraine, held on March 2, 2025. The summit, organized by British Prime Minister Keir Starmer, aimed to create a "coalition of the willing" to present a peace plan for the Russian invasion of Ukraine. Participants included leaders from 16 states, the EU, and NATO. The summit resulted in a four-point plan and commitments from Starmer, including financial aid and the purchase of air defense missiles for Ukraine. The summit was attended by 18 countries, including Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy, to discuss a potential ceasefire with Russia and security guarantees for Ukraine.

The summit included a group photo of the leaders, including Volodymyr Zelensky. The leaders discussed continued financial support for Ukraine's defense industry. Elaboration

The evidence confirms the existence of the London Summit on Ukraine on March 2, 2025, attended by European leaders and Volodymyr Zelenskyy. The summit aimed to create a peace plan for the Russian invasion of Ukraine. The evidence also mentions a photo of the leaders. However, the evidence does not explicitly state that the leaders took off their suits. Therefore, the claim cannot be fully verified.
