Elaboration

The evidence confirms that Lech Wałęsa wrote a letter to Donald Trump in March 2025. The letter criticized Trump's treatment of Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy. The evidence does not explicitly mention the suspension of U.S. military aid to Ukraine as the primary focus of Wałęsa's criticism.

The letter was signed by dozens of former Polish political prisoners and was posted on Facebook. Several news outlets, including NPR (<https://www.npr.org/2025/03/05/nx-s1-5317474/nobel-peace-prize-winner-lech-walesa-condemns-president-trumps-treatment-of-zelenskyy>), Reuters (<https://www.reuters.com/world/polish-cold-war-hero-walesa-writes-trump-expressing-horror-zelenskiy-spat-2025-03-03/>), and the Los Angeles Times (<https://www.latimes.com/world-nation/story/2025-03-03/polish-democracy-hero-walesa-says-trump-treatment-of-zelensky-filled-him-with-horror>), reported on the letter.

The claim is partially supported. The evidence confirms the letter's existence and the criticism of Trump. However, the specific reason for the criticism, the suspension of military aid, is not explicitly mentioned in the provided evidence.

Final Judgement

The evidence confirms that Lech Wałęsa wrote a letter to Donald Trump in March 2025. The letter criticized Trump's treatment of Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy. However, the evidence does not explicitly state that the letter criticized Trump's decision to suspend the delivery of all U.S. military aid to Ukraine.

The claim is partially supported by the evidence, but it is not entirely accurate because the specific reason for the criticism is not confirmed. Therefore, the most appropriate decision option is false.
