

Claim

Claim: "In August 2024, Ukraine passed legislation banning the Orthodox Church in Ukraine."

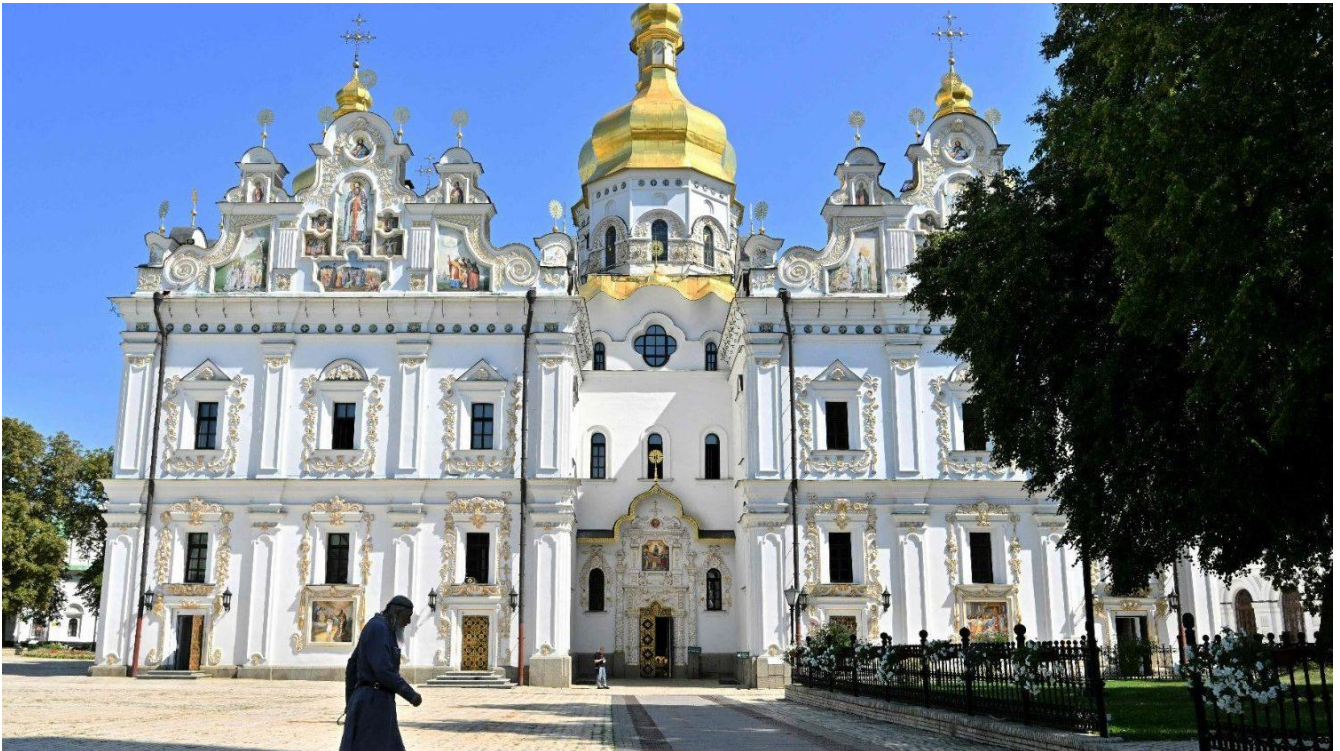

Actions

`image_search("Ukraine Orthodox Church ban August 2024")`

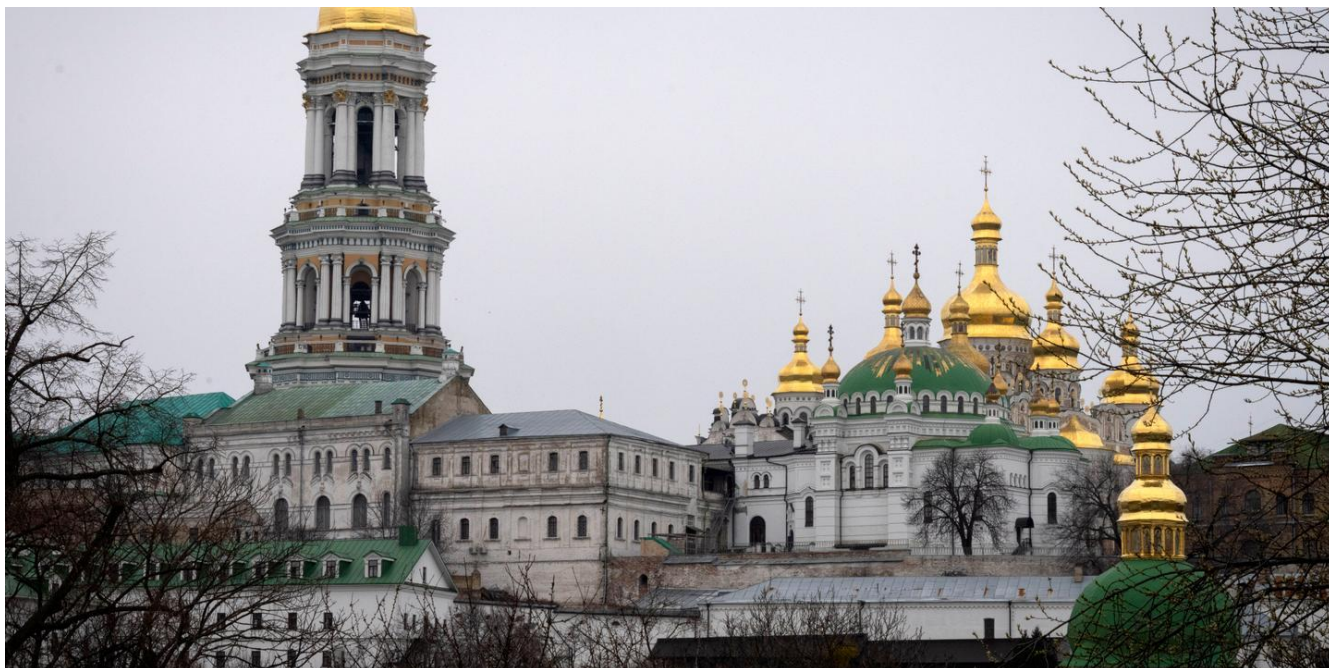

Evidence

Evidence from `image_search`

Vatican News published an article about Pope Francis appealing for religious freedom in Ukraine (

). Le Monde reports that Ukrainian MPs voted to ban the Russia-linked Orthodox Church, with the article published on August 20, 2024 (

). The Detroit Catholic website contains an image of a destroyed church in Ukraine (

).

The sources are: <https://www.vaticannews.va/en/pope/news/2024-08/pope-francis-appeals-for-religious-freedom-in-ukraine.html>, https://www.lemonde.fr/en/international/article/2024/08/20/ukraine-mps-vote-to-ban-russia-linked-orthodox-church_6718913_4.html, and <https://www.detroitcatholic.com/news/ukraines-religious-leaders-back-proposed-ban-on-russian-orthodox-church-over-security-concerns>.

Elaboration

The evidence indicates that Ukrainian MPs voted to ban the Russia-linked Orthodox Church in August 2024. The Le Monde article, published on August 20, 2024, confirms this.

Final Judgement

The fact-check confirms that Ukrainian MPs voted to ban the Russia-linked Orthodox Church in August 2024. This is supported by a Le Monde article published on August 20, 2024.

true

Verdict: TRUE

Justification

In August 2024, Ukrainian MPs voted to ban the Russia-linked Orthodox Church, as reported by Le Monde on August 20, 2024 (https://www.lemonde.fr/en/international/article/2024/08/20/ukraine-mps-vote-to-ban-russia-linked-orthodox-church_6718913_4.html).