Elaboration

The evidence confirms that Greta Thunberg declared "f-k Israel" at an anti-Israel rally in Germany. However, the evidence does not show Thunberg holding a sign that reads "Fuck Israel." The provided evidence includes images of Thunberg at the rally, but none of them show her holding a sign with the specific phrase.

Therefore, the claim is not supported by the evidence.

Final Judgement

The evidence confirms that Greta Thunberg made the statement "f-k Israel" at a rally. However, there is no evidence to support the claim that she held a sign with the phrase "Fuck Israel." The provided evidence includes images of Thunberg at the rally, but none of them show her holding a sign with the specific phrase.

false

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

While Greta Thunberg did declare "f-k Israel" at a rally, as reported by the New York Post (Source) and Yahoo News (Source), there is no evidence to support the claim that she held a sign with the phrase "Fuck Israel."
