Evidence

Evidence from `web_search`

The BBC published an article on October 9, 2024, discussing misinformation about the government's response to Hurricane Helene, including claims made by Donald Trump and JD Vance regarding government spending and rescue operations. The article also mentions President Biden approving the state governor's request for military personnel and equipment to support rescue operations in North Carolina. Elaboration

The evidence contradicts the claim. According to a Yahoo News fact-check, Biden did not say that no more aid would be provided for Hurricane Helene victims. Instead, he announced a new aid package for Ukraine on September 30, 2024. Furthermore, Le Monde reported that Biden pledged to aid victims of Hurricane Helene.

Final Judgement

The claim is demonstrably false. Multiple sources, including Yahoo News and Le Monde, confirm that Biden did not announce the cessation of aid for Hurricane Helene victims. Instead, he pledged to aid the victims and announced a new aid package for Ukraine on September 30, 2024.

false

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The claim is false. Fact-checks from sources like Yahoo News and Le Monde indicate that Biden did not make the statement in question and, in fact, pledged aid to Hurricane Helene victims.
