

Claim

Claim: "UK Prime Minister Keir Starmer said in October 2024 that the UK will boycott all diplomatic relations with Israel due to its long lasting war in Gaza."

Actions

`web_search("Keir Starmer Israel boycott Gaza October 2024")`

Evidence

Evidence from `web_search`

An article from MAP published on October 30, 2024, discusses Keir Starmer's stance on the Israel-Gaza conflict, including a statement by Keir Starmer and David Lammy, which says that Israel is exterminating Palestinians in Gaza.

The Guardian published an article on October 6, 2024, discussing Keir Starmer's call for unity and a ceasefire in Gaza.

The BBC reports that Keir Starmer is facing calls for stronger action against Israel over the situation in Gaza and that further actions against Israel will be considered, including sanctions.

Elaboration

The evidence does not support the claim that Keir Starmer stated the UK would boycott all diplomatic relations with Israel in October 2024. While the evidence indicates that Starmer has expressed concerns about the situation in Gaza, called for a ceasefire, and is facing calls for stronger action, including sanctions, there is no mention of a complete diplomatic boycott.

Final Judgement

The search results show that Keir Starmer has commented on the Israel-Gaza conflict, including calls for a ceasefire and considering further actions, but there is no evidence of him stating the UK would boycott all diplomatic relations with Israel.

false

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The evidence indicates that Keir Starmer has commented on the Israel-Gaza conflict, including calls for a ceasefire and considering further actions, but there is no evidence from the provided sources, such as the MAP article, that he stated the UK would boycott all diplomatic relations with Israel.