

Claim

Claim: "Mexican President-elect Claudia Sheinbaum rejected an invitation to Ukraine by Volodymyr Zelenskyy and said towards him on September 17, 2024: 'If I wanted to see a drug addict, I'd just take a walk around Tijuana.'"

Actions

```
web_search("Claudia Sheinbaum Zelenskyy Ukraine invitation") web_search("Claudia Sheinbaum Tijuana drug addict quote")
```

Evidence

Evidence from web_search

Claudia Sheinbaum, the Mexican President-elect, declined an invitation from Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy to visit Ukraine, according to reports from IntelliNews, Euromaidan Press, and NV.ua. Sheinbaum stated her intention to focus on internal affairs and maintain a policy of non-intervention in foreign affairs. .

The provided sources do not contain the quote attributed to Sheinbaum in the claim.

Evidence from web_search

The web sources discuss Claudia Sheinbaum's statements on drug trafficking, border control, and the fentanyl crisis. One article from MSNBC (Source) mentions her response to Donald Trump's claims about Mexico's role in the fentanyl crisis and her statements on immigration. Another article from workers.org (Source) discusses Sheinbaum's statements regarding drug trafficking and the United States' role in it.

Mexico News Daily (Source) reports on Donald Trump thanking Sheinbaum for inspiring a US anti-drug campaign and mentions her statement that the use of fentanyl "is not really a problem" in Mexico.

Elaboration

The evidence confirms that Claudia Sheinbaum declined an invitation from Volodymyr Zelenskyy to visit Ukraine. However, the provided sources do not contain the quote attributed to her in the claim. The search results do provide information about Sheinbaum's statements on drug trafficking and the fentanyl crisis, but not the specific quote.

Therefore, the veracity of the claim cannot be fully verified due to the lack of evidence supporting the alleged quote.

Final Judgement

The evidence confirms that Claudia Sheinbaum declined an invitation to visit Ukraine. However, there is no evidence to support the quote attributed to her in the claim. Since the quote cannot be verified, the claim is considered false. `false`

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

While Claudia Sheinbaum did decline an invitation to visit Ukraine, as reported by sources like IntelliNews, there is no evidence to support the specific quote attributed to her in the claim.