Elaboration

The evidence confirms that Donald Trump stated in an interview with Hugh Hewitt on October 7, 2024, that he had been to Gaza. However, reports from The Media Line and The New York Times indicate that this statement is inaccurate, as there is no record of Trump visiting Gaza.

Final Judgement

The claim is that Donald Trump stated he had been to Gaza in an interview with Hugh Hewitt on October 7, 2024. The evidence confirms that Trump made this statement. However, multiple sources report that Trump has no record of visiting Gaza, indicating the statement is false. Therefore, the claim is demonstrably false. `false`

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

Donald Trump did state in an interview with Hugh Hewitt on October 7, 2024, that he had been to Gaza, as confirmed by the interview transcript (<https://rollcall.com/factbase/trump/transcript/donald-trump-interview-hugh-hewitt-radio-october-7-2024>). However, reports from The Media Line and The New York Times indicate that this statement is inaccurate, as there is no record of Trump visiting Gaza.
