Evidence

Evidence from web_search

Multiple sources confirm that the claim of Major General Tomer Bar's death is false. An AOL fact-check published on December 12, 2024, states that there are no media reports confirming his death and that he is not listed among the soldiers and other military personnel killed since Oct. 27. Elaboration

The claim that Major General Tomer Bar was killed by Hezbollah in a drone attack in Tel Aviv in November 2024 is false. Multiple sources, including an AOL fact-check and Inshorts, confirm that Tomer Bar is alive. While Press TV reports that Hezbollah claimed to have targeted his residence in Tel Aviv with a drone attack, and CUFI mentions a drone strike and Tomer Bar inspecting a site, these reports do not confirm his death.

Final Judgement

The evidence indicates that the claim is false. Multiple sources confirm that Tomer Bar is alive, despite reports of a drone attack on his residence.

false

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The claim that Major General Tomer Bar was killed by Hezbollah is false. Multiple sources, including an AOL fact-check (<https://www.aol.com/fact-check-israeli-general-not-150127650.html>) and Inshorts, confirm that he is alive. While there are reports of a drone attack on his residence, they do not confirm his death.
