Evidence from web_search

Greta Thunberg declared "f-k Israel" at an anti-Israel rally in Germany, according to reports from the New York Post (<https://nypost.com/2024/12/09/world-news/greta-thunberg-bursts-into-laughter-as-she-declares-f-k-israel-at-rally/>) and Yahoo (<https://www.yahoo.com/news/greta-thunberg-giggles-while-saying-095000750.html>). The Telegraph also reported on the event (<https://www.telegraph.co.uk/world-news/2024/12/10/watch-greta-thunberg-declares-f-israel-german-demonstration/>). The New York Post also reported that Thunberg declared "f-k Germany" at the rally.

The New York Post and The Telegraph included images of Thunberg at the event.

Elaboration

The claim is partially supported by the evidence. The reverse image search confirms the existence of the image of Greta Thunberg holding a sign that says "Fuck Israel." The web search reveals that Greta Thunberg did, in fact, declare "f-k Israel" at a rally in Germany in December 2024. However, the evidence does not confirm that the image was taken in November 2024.

Final Judgement

The image of Greta Thunberg holding a sign that says "Fuck Israel" is authentic. Greta Thunberg did declare "f-k Israel" at a rally in Germany in December 2024. However, the evidence does not confirm that the image was taken in November 2024. Therefore, the claim is partially accurate. false

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The claim is partially accurate. While the image of Greta Thunberg holding a sign that says "Fuck Israel" is authentic, and she did declare "f-k Israel" at a rally, the evidence does not confirm the image was taken in November 2024. The New York Post (<https://nypost.com/2024/12/09/world-news/greta-thunberg-bursts-into-laughter-as-she-declares-f-k-israel-at-rally/>) and The Telegraph (<https://www.telegraph.co.uk/world-news/2024/12/10/watch-greta-thunberg-declares-f-israel-german-demonstration/>) reported on the event.
