actions.

Elaboration

The evidence confirms that Lech Wałęsa wrote a letter to Donald Trump in March 2025. The letter criticized Trump's treatment of Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy. The evidence does not explicitly mention the suspension of U.S. military aid to Ukraine, but it does state that Wałęsa's letter condemned Trump's actions.

The evidence suggests that Wałęsa's criticism was related to Trump's behavior towards Zelenskyy, and not necessarily the suspension of military aid. Further information would be needed to confirm if the letter specifically addressed the suspension of aid.
