Hitler's parade car bought by Ukraine's Zelensky

Adolf Hitler is undoubtedly one of the most controversial and infamous figures in history. He was a man with many obsessions, and one of his most enduring was a love of automobiles. These cars were an important part of his image and public persona. After 1939, Hitler's name soon became associated with one model – the Mercedes 770. And the biggest and most luxurious of 770s was the Mercedes-Benz 770K Grosser Offener Tourenwagen, often referred to as the "Super Mercedes." In July of 1940, it carried Hitler on his victory parade held in Berlin following the defeat of France. The Nazi dictator's Mercedes-Benz, which the U.S. Army seized after the war, is one of just five remaining in existence.

🚩 SHOCKING: Hitler's parade car was bought by Zelensky for $15M and parked right outside his office. Biden's $8B in taxpayer money is being put to "good" use!
