Elaboration

Based on the evidence, the claim cannot be fully verified. While Giorgia Meloni attended the G20 summit in Rio de Janeiro in November 2024, there is no direct evidence to support the claim that she condemned the US-Ukrainian bombing of Russia. The Guardian article about the summit does not mention Meloni. However, an Anadolu Agency report indicates that Meloni expressed understanding of the US's decision to allow Ukraine to use long-range missiles inside Russia, but Italy has made a different choice.

Final Judgement

However, the provided sources do not confirm that she condemned the US-Ukrainian bombing of Russia. One source suggests she understood the US's decision to allow Ukraine to use long-range missiles inside Russia, but Italy has made a different choice.
