Elaboration

The evidence indicates that in February 2025, Annalena Baerbock commented on Donald Trump's actions and statements regarding Ukraine. However, the provided sources do not mention Baerbock threatening the US with severing ties.

The Reuters article states that Baerbock emphasized that there should be no peace in Ukraine without the involvement of Ukrainians and Europeans. The Guardian reported that Baerbock wanted to protect Ukraine's interests in the upcoming negotiations between Trump and Putin. A Wikipedia article mentions Baerbock's criticism of Trump's conduct.

The claim cannot be verified because the evidence does not support the assertion that Baerbock threatened to sever ties with the US.

Final Judgement

The search results confirm that Annalena Baerbock made statements regarding Donald Trump and Ukraine in February 2025. However, the provided evidence does not support the claim that she threatened to sever ties with the US.

The claim is not supported by the evidence. The search results show Baerbock's comments on the situation, but not a threat to sever ties. Therefore, the claim is demonstrably false. `false`

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The claim is demonstrably false. While German Foreign Minister Annalena Baerbock did comment on Donald Trump's actions regarding Ukraine in February 2025, as reported by sources like Reuters and The Guardian, there is no evidence to support the assertion that she threatened to sever ties with the US.
