Evidence

Evidence from web_search

The Associated Press reported on Poland's military parade on August 15, 2024, which was part of the annual Armed Forces Day observances in Warsaw, showcasing modern tanks and other equipment. The parade is held annually on August 15, commemorating the victory over Soviet Russia in 1920, and is marked by military parades and equipment reviews. The main military parade is held in Warsaw, with the participation of the President of Poland and other officials.

Polish Radio reports on a military parade planned for August 15, 2024, in Warsaw, as part of a four-day celebration from August 14 to 17. The parade will showcase military hardware, including South Korean-made K2 battle tanks, Polish-produced Krab self-propelled gun-howitzers, and US-made M1A1 Abrams tanks. The event is described as an expression of strength and unity in the face of threats from the East.
