Evidence from web_search

The image shows Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy signing artillery shells. According to Eurovision News | Spotlight, the video and images were falsely claimed to be Israeli bombs for use in Gaza. The video actually shows Zelenskyy at a U.S. factory supporting Ukraine's defense needs.

Fox News and Caliber.Az also report on Zelenskyy signing munitions at the Scranton Army Ammunition Plant in Pennsylvania. Zelenskyy wrote "Glory to Ukraine" on the shells.

Elaboration

The claim is false. The image shows Volodymyr Zelenskyy signing artillery shells at the Scranton Army Ammunition Plant (SCAAP) in Pennsylvania in September 2024, not Israeli bombs. The ammunition was intended for Ukraine's defense, not for use against Palestinians in Gaza.

Final Judgement

The image shows Volodymyr Zelenskyy signing artillery shells at a U.S. ammunition plant in September 2024, not Israeli bombs. The claim that the image depicts Zelenskyy signing Israeli bombs intended for use against Palestinians in Gaza is demonstrably false.
