Evidence from web_search

The Associated Press (<https://apnews.com/article/poland-armed-forces-day-russia-army-parade-db5c8663bf0b6e3c403b0c8482da4aed>) reported on Poland's military parade in Warsaw on August 15, 2024, as part of the annual Armed Forces Day. Polish Radio (<https://www.polskieradio.pl/395/7784/artykul/3413138,poland-set-for-massive-military-parade>) also reported on the parade, which was part of a four-day celebration from August 14 to 17, showcasing military hardware.

The parade is an expression of strength and unity. Wikipedia (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Armed_Forces_Day_\(Poland\))) discusses Armed Forces Day in Poland, celebrated on August 15th, commemorating the 1920 victory over Soviet Russia.

Evidence from image_search

CNN (<https://www.cnn.com/2023/08/15/europe/poland-military-parade-europe-clout-intl>) published an article about a military parade in Poland, including an image of tanks. Al Jazeera reports that Poland held a military parade (<https://www.aljazeera.com/news/2023/8/16/poland-holds-huge-military-parade-as-war-rages-in-neighbouring-ukraine>).

The BBC also published an image of a military parade in Poland (<https://www.bbc.com/news/av/world-europe-66515585>).

Elaboration

The claim that the image shows a military parade on August 14, 2024, is partially supported by the evidence. The web search results confirm that Poland held a military parade on August 15, 2024, as part of a four-day celebration. The image search results also show images of military parades in Poland.

However, the claim that the parade was preparing for war with Russia is not supported by the evidence. The parade is described as an expression of strength and unity and commemorates a victory over Soviet Russia.

Final Judgement

The image is of a military parade in Poland, which took place on August 15, 2024, not August 14. The parade was part of a celebration and not specifically a preparation for war with Russia.
