

Claim

Claim: "

This image shows Israelis fleeing the airport after the Houthis attack on July 19, 2024."

Actions

```
geolocate(!image 60)
web_search("airport crowded israel")
reverse_search(!image 60)
```

Evidence

Evidence from geolocate

The most likely countries where the image was taken are: {'Israel': 0.89, 'Palestine': 0.06, 'Jordan': 0.01, 'United Arab Emirates': 0.01, 'Albania': 0.0, 'Andorra': 0.0, 'Argentina': 0.0, 'Australia': 0.0, 'Austria': 0.0, 'Bangladesh': 0.0}

Evidence from web_search

The web sources discuss the high volume of passengers at Ben Gurion Airport. One article from Ynetnews.com mentions the busiest day of summer, with 78,000 passengers expected. The Times of Israel reports that Ben Gurion Airport in Tel Aviv was expected to record the busiest day since the war with Hamas on October 7, 2023. The image ( ) shows passengers at Ben Gurion International airport near Tel Aviv, August 8, 2025.

The articles can be found here: <https://www.ynetnews.com/travel/article/s1lzrclogx> and <https://www.timesofisrael.com/israel-sees-record-passenger-travel-since-oct-7-as-flight-prices-jump-by-up-to-119/>.

Evidence from reverse_search

The image in the claim ( ) appears in a Business Insider article from October 10, 2023, which discusses flight cancellations and chaos at Israel's Ben Gurion Airport during the war with Gaza. The image is also found on Getty Images, which contains stock photos of Ben Gurion Airport, including images of crowded areas, flight cancellations, and security measures. Some images are dated from 2022, 2023, 2024, and 2025. The Getty Images search results include images of the airport after attacks or during times of tension.

Elaboration

The claim is not supported by the evidence. The image is of Ben Gurion Airport in Israel. However, the evidence indicates that the image was taken on August 8, 2025, and the image was also used in an article from October 10, 2023. The evidence does not mention any attacks by Houthis on July 19, 2024.

Final Judgement

The image is of Ben Gurion Airport in Israel. The image was taken on August 8, 2025, and was also used in an article from October 10, 2023. The evidence does not mention any attacks by Houthis on July 19, 2024.

false

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The image depicts Ben Gurion Airport in Israel, but the claim that it shows Israelis fleeing after a Houthi attack on July 19, 2024, is false. The image was taken on August 8, 2025, and was also used in an article from October 10, 2023, and there is no evidence of a Houthi attack on the specified date.