This image shows a screenshot of an authentic X post from Elon Musk on November 6, 2025 saying "The last dollar for Zelenskiy'."

Actions

web_search("Elon Musk Zelenskiy last dollar")

Evidence

Evidence from web_search

The AOL article (<https://www.aol.com/fact-check-elon-musk-didn-164103080.html>) fact-checks the claim that Elon Musk posted "The last dollar for Zelenskiy" and states the claim is false. The article provides an image of a purported tweet from Musk with the text "The last dollar for Zelenskiy" and a dollar bill with Trump's image

. The article also mentions that a wider internet search and a review of Musk's X account did not yield any results for this claim.

The Politico.eu article (<https://www.politico.eu/article/billionaire-elon-musk-mocks-ukraine-president-zelenskyy-asking-aid-with-meme/>) discusses Elon Musk's meme mocking Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy's calls for Western aid. The StopFake.org article (<https://www.stopfake.org/en/fake-ukraine-stopped-using-the-starlink-system-and-insulted-elon-musk-united24/>) discusses a fake story about Ukraine stopping the use of Starlink and insulting Elon Musk.

Elaboration

The evidence indicates the claim is false. The AOL article fact-checks the claim and states it is false, providing an image of the purported tweet. A search of Musk's X account did not yield any results for the claim.

Final Judgement

The fact-check reveals that the claim is false. The AOL article specifically fact-checks the claim that Elon Musk posted "The last dollar for Zelenskiy" and states it is false. A search of Musk's X account did not yield any results for this claim.

The claim is demonstrably false as it is disproven by evidence from a reliable source. `false`

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The claim that Elon Musk posted "The last dollar for Zelenskiy" is false. A fact-check by AOL (<https://www.aol.com/fact-check-elon-musk-didn-164103080.html>) found no evidence of such a post on Musk's X account.
