Evidence

Evidence from web_search

One article from AOL, published on February 20, 2025, fact-checks the claim that Volodymyr Zelenskyy purchased the Eagle's Nest and states that the claim is false, as the Eagle's Nest is still owned by the Free State of Bavaria. (

) Another article from EADaily, published on February 8, 2025, claims that Zelenskyy purchased the Eagle's Nest for €14.2 million through an offshore company. (

A third article, published on February 27, 2025, by Yana Sliemzina, debunks a claim that Zelenskyy purchased a villa on Saint Barthelemy island, stating that the evidence is fake. (

Good Morning Missis Ormanzhi,

I do confirm that it's a false document.
A denial was posted on TF1 site on january 9th.
Once again, fake news.
Best regards.

Elaboration

The claim is disputed. One article states that the claim is false, as the Eagle's Nest is still owned by the Free State of Bavaria. Another article claims that Zelenskyy purchased the Eagle's Nest. A third article debunks a similar claim about Zelenskyy purchasing a villa, stating that the evidence is fake and that the claim was spread by Russian media.

Based on the evidence, the claim's veracity is uncertain due to conflicting information.

Final Judgement

The fact-check reveals conflicting information. One source states the claim is false, while another claims it is true. Given the conflicting evidence, the claim cannot be definitively verified. false

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The claim that Volodymyr Zelenskyy purchased the Eagle's Nest is disputed. While one source states the claim is false, as the Eagle's Nest is still owned by the Free State of Bavaria, another source claims the purchase occurred. Given the conflicting information, the claim cannot be definitively verified.
