Evidence

Evidence from `web_search`

Joe Biden approved a US nuclear strategy to prepare for possible coordinated nuclear confrontations with Russia, China, and North Korea, according to reports from The Guardian (<https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/article/2024/aug/20/biden-nuclear-strategy-china-threat>) and the Lowy Institute (<https://www.lowyinstitute.org/the-interpreter/us-shifts-nuclear-focus-counter-china-s-growing-arsenal>). The plan, approved in March, reorients America's deterrent strategy to focus on China's growing nuclear arsenal.

North Korea condemned the new U.S. nuclear strategic plan, as reported by Voice of America (<https://www.voanews.com/a/north-korea-condemns-new-us-nuclear-strategic-plan->

Elaboration

The evidence indicates that Joe Biden, while serving as US President, approved a nuclear strategy to prepare for possible confrontations with Russia, China, and North Korea. The plan, approved in March, reorients America's deterrent strategy to focus on China's growing nuclear arsenal. North Korea condemned the new U.S. nuclear strategic plan.

Final Judgement

The evidence confirms that Joe Biden, as US President in 2024, approved a nuclear strategy that includes preparing for possible confrontations with Russia, China, and North Korea. This is supported by reports from The Guardian and the Lowy Institute.
