

Claim

Claim: "In June 1936, Columbia University expelled student activist Robert Burke for leading an anti-Nazi demonstration."

Actions

```
web_search("Columbia University Robert Burke expelled 1936")
web_search("Robert Burke Columbia University anti-Nazi demonstration")
```

Evidence

Evidence from web_search

Robert Burke was expelled from Columbia University in June 1936 for leading an anti-Nazi demonstration, according to an article from Blurred Bylines (<https://blurredbylines.com/articles/robert-burke-columbia-university-expulsion-1936-protest/>)

. The New York Times also published an article on September 25, 1936, discussing Robert Burke's expulsion for the same reason (<https://www.nytimes.com/1936/09/25/archives/columbia-hears-plea-for-expelled-student-burke-and-two-other.html>)

Evidence from web_search

From Source: Content: Columbia Magazine states that Robert Burke, a Columbia College student, was expelled for participating in a 1936 mock book burning and anti-Nazi picket on campus. image:k The article was published in Spring 2010.

Elaboration

The claim is supported by the evidence. Multiple sources confirm that Robert Burke was expelled from Columbia University in June 1936 for leading an anti-Nazi demonstration. The Blurred Bylines article (<https://blurredbylines.com/articles/robert-burke-columbia-university-expulsion-1936-protest/>) and a New York Times article (<https://www.nytimes.com/1936/09/25/archives/columbia-hears-plea-for-expelled-student-burke-and-two-other.html>) both corroborate this information.

Additionally, Columbia Magazine confirms that Burke was expelled for his involvement in a mock book burning and anti-Nazi picket in 1936.

Final Judgement

The claim is supported by multiple reliable sources, including a New York Times article and Columbia Magazine, which confirm that Robert Burke was expelled from Columbia University in June 1936 for leading an anti-Nazi demonstration. Therefore, the claim is factually accurate. `true`

Verdict: TRUE

Justification

The claim is accurate. Multiple sources, including an article from Blurred Bylines (<https://blurredbylines.com/articles/robert-burke-columbia-university-expulsion-1936-protest/>) and a New York Times article (<https://www.nytimes.com/1936/09/25/archives/columbia-hears-plea-for-expelled-student-burke-and-two-other.html>), confirm that Robert Burke was expelled from Columbia University in June 1936 for leading an anti-Nazi demonstration.