

Claim

Claim: "

This image shows coffins of dead Israeli soldiers in September, 2024."

Actions

```
reverse_search(![image 49] (media/80.jpg))
web_search("Israel coffins protest")
```

Evidence

Evidence from reverse_search

The image shows coffins draped in the Israeli flag. The image is from a reburial ceremony of Jewish settlers in Jerusalem on September 1, 2005. The image was taken by GALI TIBBON.

The image is available on Getty Images and Getty Images. The image is also available on 123RF.

Evidence from web_search

The BBC News article from February 20, 2025, discusses the return of Israeli hostages' bodies, including Oded Lifschitz, Shiri Bibas, and her two sons, Ariel and Kfir (

). The Times of Israel published an article on September 5, 2024, about a protest in Tel Aviv where protesters carried 27 mock coffins to represent hostages killed in Gaza, which includes the image in the claim ( ). The JTA article from August 29, 2025, discusses the relocation of an Israeli hostage awareness event in Boulder, Colorado, due to harassment.

Elaboration

The claim is inaccurate. The image depicts a protest in Tel Aviv on September 5, 2024, where protesters carried mock coffins to represent hostages killed in Gaza, not dead Israeli soldiers. The image was taken by GALI TIBBON and is available on Getty Images.

Final Judgement

The image shows mock coffins used in a protest in Tel Aviv on September 5, 2024, representing hostages killed in Gaza, not dead Israeli soldiers. The image is from a protest and not from a reburial ceremony.

false

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The image in the claim shows mock coffins used in a protest in Tel Aviv on September 5, 2024, representing hostages killed in Gaza, not dead Israeli soldiers. The image is from a protest and not from a reburial ceremony, as confirmed by Getty Images and The Times of Israel.