Elaboration

The evidence suggests that the image is related to an Israeli air attack on Damascus. The Alghad.tv article states that the Syrian Ministry of Defense announced details of an Israeli air attack on Damascus on December 2, 2023, and includes an image of an explosion. However, the claim states that the image shows an event in February 2025, which contradicts the date provided by the evidence.

Therefore, the claim is not supported by the evidence. The image is associated with an event that occurred in December 2023, not February 2025.

Final Judgement

The image is associated with an Israeli air attack on Damascus in December 2023, as reported by Alghad.tv. The claim states the image depicts an event in February 2025, which is not supported by the evidence.

false

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The image depicts an Israeli air attack on Damascus that occurred in December 2023, as reported by Alghad.tv. The claim that the image shows an event in February 2025 is therefore false.
