Evidence from web_search

One source from Al-Haq (<https://www.alhaq.org/monitoring-documentation/6941.html>) describes an incident in December 2011 where an Israeli soldier unleashed a dog on a Palestinian woman. The article includes a photo of a similar incident for illustration purposes.

Another source from Middle East Eye (<https://www.middleeasteye.net/news/israeli-army-dog-mauled-palestinian-pregnant-woman-then-she-lost-baby>) published on January 6, 2025, reports on an Israeli army dog attack on a pregnant Palestinian woman in Khan Younis, Gaza Strip. The article mentions that the dog had a light and a camera on its head, but does not include the image

Elaboration

The evidence suggests that Israeli army dogs have attacked Palestinian women. However, the image

Evidence

No new evidence found.

Elaboration

The evidence confirms that Israeli army dogs have attacked Palestinian women. However, the image's authenticity cannot be verified. The reverse image search did not yield any results. The web search found articles about similar incidents, but none of them included the image. Therefore, the claim that the image is authentic cannot be verified.

Evidence from web_search

Anadolu Agency reported on June 30, 2024, about a 70-year-old Palestinian woman attacked by an Israeli army dog in Gaza's Jabalia refugee camp, which had a camera on its back (image:k). The Palestinian Centre for Human Rights (PCHR) reported on July 7, 2024, about an incident in May 2024 where an Israeli military dog attacked an elderly Palestinian woman while she was asleep, biting her shoulder ( ). The PCHR article also mentions a video of the attack captured by a camera mounted on the dog.

Elaboration

The evidence confirms that there were attacks by Israeli army dogs on Palestinian women in June 2024. One incident occurred in Gaza's Jabalia refugee camp, and another in May 2024, where an elderly woman was bitten on the shoulder. The latter incident was captured on video by a camera mounted on the dog. However, the provided image

Final Judgement

The evidence confirms that Israeli army dogs attacked Palestinian women in June 2024. However, the image's authenticity cannot be verified. The reverse image search did not yield any results. The web search found articles about similar incidents, but none of them included the image. Therefore, the claim that the image is authentic cannot be verified.

false

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

While there were reports of Israeli army dogs attacking Palestinian women in June 2024, the image in question could not be verified as authentic. Reverse image searches and other searches did not yield any results confirming the image's authenticity, despite confirming similar incidents, including one captured on video by a camera mounted on a dog.
