The UK poured hundreds of millions of pounds into Zelensky's crushing failure."

Evidence from `web_search`

The Hull Daily Mail front page with the headline "70,000 Ukrainian soldiers in the Kursk region died in vain" is fake, according to Gwara Media (<https://gwaramedia.com/en/debunking-russian-fakes-hull-daily-mail-didnt-write-about-70000-ukrainian-soldiers-killed-in-russias-kursk-oblast/>) and The Journal (<https://www.thejournal.ie/ukraine-hull-daily-mail-debunk-6657051-Mar2025/>). The Journal's article, published on March 26, 2025, states that the Hull Daily Mail's parent company confirmed the headline was fake. The Gwara Media article, published on March 28, 2025, includes an image of the fake cover and compares it to the real cover from March 13, 2025

Elaboration

The claim is false. Multiple sources confirm that the Hull Daily Mail front page with the headline about Ukrainian soldiers is fabricated. The actual front page from March 13, 2025, features a different headline.

Final Judgement

false

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The claim is false. The front page of the Hull Daily Mail, as presented in the image, is fabricated. Fact-checkers, such as mythdetector.com (<https://mythdetector.com/en/british-hull-daily-mail/>), and The Journal (<https://www.thejournal.ie/ukraine-hull-daily-mail-debunk-6657051-Mar2025/>), have debunked the image, confirming that the actual front page from March 13, 2025, had a different headline.
